YMCA GREATER KANSAS CITY ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES

The Defendant is not capable of taking great care of the Defendant administrative duties and problems for the YMCA Greater Kansas City. The problems of the Defendant are not sharing time with the members to resolve the problems at the same time the problems are happen it is the duties and the responsible of the YMCA Greater Kansas City to handle the day to day member's activities and complaints. The duties of employees are to give good information to the members of how the other members are to treat each other. There administrative duties of the employees are to allow each of the members the same opportunities to enjoy what physical activities the YMCA has for enjoyment while visiting the program. The Defendant discriminated.

The Plaintiff was never treated the same as all of the other members of the YMCA. During the time the Plaintiff membership with the Defendant was at the 8th Street YMCA in Kansas City, Kansas the Director David Byrd limited the Plaintiff YMCA membership visits. The Director David Byrd did not lower the fees of being a member but continued to charge the Plaintiff the same membership fees while the Plaintiff was not allowed to visit all of the YMCA's in the Greater Kansas City, Kansas. On March 14, 14 the Plaintiff was allowed to enter into the Platt City, Missouri YMCA because there is limitations to revisit the 8th Street only if the Plaintiff would agree to the terms of limited membership visits three days every week for three hours on the three days a week but the Plaintiff did not agree on set up of the visits.

The Platt City, Missouri YMCA the Plaintiff entry to the YMCA an employee working at the Platt City, Missouri YMCA attacked the Plaintiff grabbing the bunch of keys with key tags rapped and covers around my right hand.

The YMCA employee grabs the keys with key tags from me injuring my right hand. I have had medical treatment because of the injury the YMCA employee cause me to have treat to the right hand because the Plaintiff hand was swollen and in pain the Plaintiff is seeking damages for her injury from the employee and Criminal Arrest.

FEDERAL TITLE

Title IX is base on sex and the sexual orientation of an individual calling this harassment. The members of the YMCA mocked me for not wanting to show my sex in the locker room. I was mocked because I would follow the policy for the YMCA to have on lite wear clothing when entering into the spa is when using the sauna/steam. The Mexican would say the Niger is going to start trouble because we are not wearing the proper clothing in the sauna. Federal Rule Bullying

DAMAGES

The Plaintiff is seeking medical bill cost recovery, pain and suffering recovery, travel mileage recovery to and from medical appointments, seeking legal help with the Plaintiff complaint from attorney cause damages to seeking legal help when the Plaintiff did not need legal help because there was nothing medical injured the right hand of the Plaintiff. The damage amount is more than $ 300,500,000.00. The Plaintiff arrives at the Plaintiff damages:

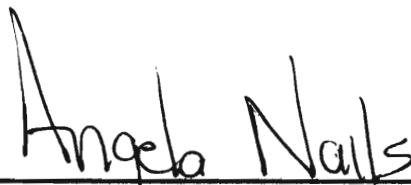

(1) Federal Title Bullying

- (2) Charges member the contract agreement membership original fees when terms of membership agreement is not enforce and being completed between the member and the YMCA on the same visit days and the hours of when the member is to visit the YMCA is open and then the days and times to visit the YMCA the member is limited and days and time to visit the YMCA but charged the same amount of membership fees at the monthly rate the member is already having debited form the members checking account.
- (3) The harassment of a Missouri Kansas employee who grabs keys from the members hand injuring the members right hand and the member needed treatment from the ER and Physical Therapy for four weeks because of swelling and poor movement of motivation to hold, pick and sit things down using the member right hand use.
- (4) The member's complaints about YMCA policy when using the Spa Area cause the management staff to reject the Plaintiff- membership base on the Plaintiff being wrongful doing not following the Contract Agreement per signing to become a YMCA member.
- (5) It was not fault of the member that her complaint were good complaints and the maintenance staff and the management staff is willing to keep the member as a member of the YMCA but on the wrong terms.
- (6) The Director were asking the member who is the Plaintiff to be a member on a 3 month trial bases without changing any payment cost while the YMCA would ask the member to follow terms with changing the member contract of coming into the YMCA two hours a day three days a week.

The following dose warrant the Plaintiff who is the member to agree with the Management of the YMCA of the member was bully assaulted and harass with doing anything to the other members doing the bullying the assaulting and harassing to the member. The other members were Mexican or White employees who were use to discriminate toward the member of the YMCA the Plaintiff is the member of the YMCA.
